

Session One: September 6th – October 11th

Theme: Faith, Family and Finances

1. I'm Getting My Money Right - God expects us to be faithful stewards of our money and and generous givers. Develop a lifestyle of financial wholeness, a consistent pattern of sound financial decisions, generosity and financial practices that are aligned with biblical stewardship.
2. Honoring God with Our Time - Learn to organize your day and time in a way that honors God and discover effective time management strategies that bring maximum effectiveness to your life, work and ministry.
3. #Family Is Everything - Building strong family ties requires a commitment to family amid the complexities of life. These small group conversations will center around family relationships to include traditional and blended families, caring for aging parents, parenting adolescent and young adult children and extended family relationships.
4. Millennials & The Church - Millennials represent the strength and future of the church. Join this intriguing conversation that will explore millennial worldviews, encourage millennial involvement and ignite millennial passion for the church.

Session Two: October 25th – December 6th

Theme: Spiritual Formation

1. We Are Not Alone: Managing Our Emotions Through the Holidays – The holidays bring good feelings, festive gatherings and fond memories spent with family and friends. Yet, there are those who are grieving the loss of loved ones, battling feelings of depression, aloneness and isolation during the holiday season. This small group conversation is designed to educate and encourage members with the word of God, fellowship and strategies for managing our emotions during the holiday season.
2. Millennials & The Church – Millennials represent the strength and future of the church. Join this intriguing conversation that will explore millennial worldviews, encourage millennial involvement and ignite millennial passion for the church.
3. Invitation to A Journey - The spiritual walk is a lifelong journey. Join this conversation and discover how God uses the experiences of our daily lives to transform us into the image of Christ and the service of others.
4. Spiritual Disciplines - The spiritual life is guided by practices that both cultivate and strengthen our faith. This conversation will reflect upon those practices, and seek new ways to engage the spiritual disciplines of prayer, fasting, spiritual reading, reflection and writing.